

You are invited to join

THE NORTH CAROLINA JUSTICE CENTER

as we honor

Former Representative Susan Fisher

• LIFETIME CHAMPION OF JUSTICE •

Former Representative Susan Fisher, a seventh-generation native of Asheville, served in the NC Legislature for nine terms. She retired from the House in 2022, after almost two decades of public service.

Rep. Fisher has been a champion of workers' rights in North Carolina, fiercely advocating for a living wage, paid time off for illness and other policies beneficial to NC families. In addition to these efforts, she has championed issues as diverse as improving our public schools, protecting consumers from predatory lenders, and preserving the natural environment.

She is truly a Lifetime Champion of Justice!
